

Our mighty bells

Tune: Truro (Williams) (AKA Jesus shall reign)

Words: Neal Dodge 2025

Our mighty bells, their voices clear,
Remind us thou art always near
Each change we ring, a melody,
Resounds with ancient harmony.

By grasping ropes, a sacred bond,
In rhythmic sway, our souls respond,
With each bell's turn, our spirits rise,
We sing across expansive skies,

With chimes our souls take wondrous flight,
A symphony of sacred might.
Through changing times, we find our place,
In ringing we do seek your grace.

O Lord our guide in every peal,
With each new row our hearts reveal,
Your presence in each well struck tone,
In times of change, we're not alone.

So let our bells ring true and clear,
Proclaiming hope, dispelling fear,
By changes' dance, your glory shown,
In ringing out, your love is known
